Section 3 Employment Opportunities

- ◆ Economic development for Beecher Terrace and its residents is important, new jobs will be available during the transformation of Beecher Terrace and the Russell neighborhood through the Section 3 program.
- ◆ Recruitment sessions will be held later this summer and fall in Beecher for various employment opportunities, this mainly includes construction jobs.

What is Section 3?

- ◆ Section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (Section 3) ensures that HUD-funded jobs, training and contracts are provided to local low-income residents, particularly those that reside in public housing, and businesses that substantially employ them.

Who receives priority under Section 3?

- ◆ Priority for Section 3 training and employment will go to:
 - ◆ Beecher Terrace residents
 - ◆ Other public housing residents
 - ◆ Other persons living Russell
 - ◆ YouthBuild program participants
 - ◆ Persons who fall below the federal poverty guidelines and reside within the metro boundaries

Section 3 Employment Goals

- ◆ >33% of new hires for the Beecher Terrace transformation will be Section 3 eligible residents
- ◆ >10% of the total amount of construction contracts will go to Section 3 businesses
- ◆ >10% of the total of other contracts will go to Section 3 businesses

Upcoming Meetings
