

Field Technician/ Inspector

Cosmos Technologies, Inc. – Louisville, KY

Cosmos Technologies, Inc. is seeking an entry level field technician/inspector to assist in inspection of residential and commercial properties.,

Inspection Duties/ Responsibilities:

- Take pictures and document field activities
- Upload information to dropbox and label accordingly
- Monitor and inspect the condition of residential and commercial properties.
- Monitor and inspect the construction of municipal infrastructure projects including pump station upgrades or installation, wastewater treatment plant component upgrades or installation, water and sewer pipelines, manholes, and others related items.
- Conduct air monitoring samples during construction work.
- Verify that the work is performed in accordance with specifications and applicable regulations.
- Complete regular inspection reports

Minimum Qualifications are the following:

- Effective verbal and written communication skills is a must
- Proficient with Microsoft Word
- Timely and reliable
- A vehicle is required

Note: Individual must have the legal documents to immediately work in the U.S. A valid driver's license issued by state of residence and in good standing is required.

Cosmos Technologies Inc, (Cosmos) is a leading small business in the areas of Environmental Engineering, Environmental Management, Construction Management and Inspection, Energy Management and Environmental Research and Development Company. Cosmos has experienced significant growth over the past ten (10) years.

If interested, please send a resume to Holly Douglas, at hdouglas@cosmostechnologiesinc.com.